LEARNING ENGLISH THROUGH COMMUNICATION, ISLAMIC VALUES, AND REAL-LIFE EXPERIENCE.

English I (Integrated Skills) is designed for Muslim university students to build a strong foundation in English through an integrated approach to Listening, Speaking, Reading, and Writing in meaningful and authentic contexts.

This module combines communicative language teaching, Islamic values, real-life experiences, and AI-assisted learning to help students communicate confidently and responsibly in academic and ma'had environments.

COMMUNICATIVE & TASK-BASED LEARNING
Activities designed for meaningful communication in real-life situations.

INTEGRATED ISLAMIC VALUES
Every unit connects language learning with Qur'anic teachings and prophetic guidance.

FOUR SKILLS INTEGRATION
Listening, Speaking, Reading, and Writing learned in an engaging and balanced way.

AI-ASSISTED PRACTICE
QR codes and AI tools support independent and interactive learning.

PROJECT-BASED APPROACH
Each unit ends with a mini project to apply language skills creatively.

PREFACE

Assalāmu'alaikum warahmatullāhi wabarakātuh,

Praise be to Allāh, the Most Merciful, the Most Compassionate. All praise is due to Him who has bestowed upon us guidance, knowledge, and strength, enabling us to complete this book. Shalawāt and salām may always be upon our beloved Prophet Muhammad ﷺ, his family, companions, and all who follow his path until the Day of Judgment.

This book, Communicative English for Muslim University Students: Semester 1, is designed to support Muslim university students in developing their English communication skills within the context of Islamic values and university life. It integrates language learning with meaningful themes such as faith, character, knowledge, and contribution to society.

The materials in this book are presented in a practical, interactive, and student-centered manner. Each unit provides activities that encourage learners to communicate confidently, think critically, and reflect upon Islamic teachings in their daily lives. The book also aims to foster Islamic identity while preparing students to engage globally as knowledgeable, ethical, and responsible future leaders.

We would like to express our sincere appreciation to all lecturers, colleagues, and students who have contributed their ideas, feedback, and support in the development of this book. May this book be a beneficial companion in your journey to learn English, strengthen your Islamic values, and lead the future.

Jazākumullāhu khayran.
Wassalāmu'alaikum warahmatullāhi wabarakātuh.

QUR'ANIC INSIGHT

Let's learn from the Qur'an.

Surah Al-Hujurat (49): 10

إِنَّمَا الْمُؤْمِنُونَ إِخْوَةٌ فَأَصْلِحُوا بَيْنَ أَخَوَيْكُمْ
وَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ لَعَلَّكُمْ تُرْحَمُونَ

"The believers are but brothers, so make settlement between your brothers. And fear Allah that you may receive mercy."

(QS. Al-Hujurat 49:10)

THINK & SHARE

- What does this verse teach us about relationships?
- How can we apply this in our daily life at campus?
- How can we build good friendships as Muslims?

ENGLISH FOR MA'HAD

Useful expressions in the dormitory (Ma'had).

Situation	Useful Expressions
Greeting a roommate	Hi! Good morning. / Assalamu'alaikum. How are you?

READING

A. Read the text and answer the questions.

Our English Class

Every Monday morning, we have English class in Room 302. Our lecturer, Mr. Hasan, always greets us with a smile.

We start the class by listening to a short video or a story. Then, we discuss the topic in groups. Everyone shares ideas and asks questions. If we don't understand, we politely ask our lecturer to explain again.

Sometimes, we give presentations in front of the class. It helps us to speak confidently. At the end of the class, Mr. Hasan gives homework or an assignment. We alway s try to do our best because we know that learning English helps us understand many Islamic books and communicate with people from different countries.

We learn together, help each other, and enjoy our class. English is fun when we practice and use it every day.

Choose the best answer.

1. Who is the lecturer in the class?
   a. Mr. Ahmad b. Mr. Hasan c. Mr. Yusuf

DID YOU KNOW?

In Islam, we are encouraged to eat halal, healthy, and not excessive.
Let's be grateful for every meal we have.

- ✓ Halal — from permissible sources
- ✓ Tayyib — clean, nutritious, and good for our body
- ✓ Balanced — not too much and not too little

Good food helps us to be healthy, active, and grateful to Allah.

Eat with gratitude, share with kindness.

Unit 6 Food and Dining at the Ma'had

Healthy Eating and Table Conversations

READING

A. Read the text and answer the questions.

Lunch Time at the Ma'had

It is 12.30 p.m., and the students are in the Ma'had dining hall. The adhan for Dhuhr has just been heard. Ahmad, Yusuf, and Bilal sit together at one table, and Aisyah, Fatimah, and Maryam sit at another table.

Today's menu is rice, grilled chicken, vegetable soup, tempeh, and fresh fruit. There is also vegetable salad and water to drink.

Before eating, Bilal says, "Bismillah." After finishing the meal, they say, "Alhamdulillah." They are thankful to Allah for the good and halal food.

Ahmad likes chicken and soup. Yusuf prefers tempeh and vegetables. Fatimah does not like spicy food, so she asks for mild soup. Maryam likes fresh fruit, especially watermelon.

They eat together, talk politely, and laugh happily. They know that eating healthy food gives them energy to study, worship, and serve others better.

QUR'ANIC INSIGHT

Read the verse, understand its meaning, and reflect.

Surah Al-Baqarah (2:172)

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا كُلُوا مِن طَيِّبَاتِ
مَا رَزَقْنَـٰكُمْ وَٱشْكُرُوا لِلَّهِ إِن كُنتُمْ
إِيَّاهُ تَعْبُدُونَ

English Translation

O believers! Eat from the good and lawful things We have provided for you and be grateful to Allah if you truly worship Him.

Terjemahan (Bahasa Indonesia)

Wahai orang-orang yang beriman! Makanlah dari rezeki yang baik yang Kami berikan kepadamu dan bersyukurlah kepada Allah jika benar-benar hanya kepada-Nya kamu menyembah.

Reflection

- What does "tayyibat" (good and lawful) mean?
- Why does Allah command us to eat good food?
- How can we be grateful for the food we eat?
- How does healthy food help us in worship and study?

Remember: Halalan tayyiban food is good for our body, heart, and faith.

ENGLISH FOR MA'HAD

Unit 8 Weekend Activities

Planning a Meaningful Weekend

Universitas PTIQ Jakarta

READING

A. Read the text and answer the questions.

A Productive Weekend at PTIQ

It is Saturday and Sunday. Ahmad and his friends have many plans.

On Saturday morning, they are going to attend an Islamic lecture at the campus mosque. The lecture will start at 08.00 a.m. After the lecture, they will study together in the library.

In the afternoon, Yusuf and Bilal are going to play badminton in the sports hall. Aisyah and Maryam will cook together and prepare lunch for the dormitory. After lunch, they will clean their rooms and do laundry.

On Sunday morning, they are going to join a charity program. They will visit an orphanage and donate books and snacks for the children. In the afternoon, they are going to visit the National Library. They will read books and take notes for their assignments.

They believe a meaningful weekend helps them balance worship, study, health, friendship, and social care. They are happy because they can spend their weekend in a useful and blessed way.
